DONATION

_____ euros

PURPOSE OF DONATION

The purpose of the donation is to support the university's mission in accordance with Section 2 of the Universities Act (research, artistic activity and teaching).

The donation is intended for the university's operations in general. The donation does not include any conditions regarding its purpose.

OTHER TERMS

All terms of the donation are defined in this deed of donation.

The donation is gratuitous. The donation is not subject to a condition subsequent or a condition that would limit the use of the university's other assets, including potential matched funding allocated by the state. The university decides how the donation will be used.

The donation may involve the state's matched funding, which may be three times the donated sum or less. The donor is aware that the donation's eligibility for matched funding is determined by the Government. The university adds the potential matched funding to the university's basic capital permanently. The university decides how the return on the basic capital will be used.

The donor's name may be used in university communications [Yes / No]

The donor gives the permission to have the sum of the donation displayed in university communications [Yes / No]

All information related to the donations (donor, sum) is public based on the Act on the Openness of Government Activities (621/1999).

The donation will be paid to the university's bank account Nordea FI 14 1745 3000 1596 59, no later than 30 June 2017.
